

Allowing the use of electrical power lines to carry radio frequency signals for communications would certainly cause interference to radio traffic in the area, especially to FCC-sanctioned amateur radio operators. It would, in effect, turn the utilized power lines into huge antennas radiating radio-frequency energy. Please do not allow power lines to be used for communications purposes.